

Review Board Member

Deacon Michael Eisenbeiss

Deacon Michael Eisenbeiss is the current co-chairperson of the Review Board and has served on the Board since 2005. He has a psychology practice in Boise working with children, youth and adults. He also serves as a Deacon at The Church of the Sacred Heart in Boise.

Dr. Eisenbeiss worked for 3 ½ years with the Idaho State Health and Welfare, Mental Health Services. He was mental health coordinator in Valley County for two years and served as chief psychologist in Boise for one year. Dr. Eisenbeiss worked closely with Child Protection Services. He was an expert witness in the court system with cases involving child physical and sexual abuse and child neglect. He then went into private practice as a psychologist.

Dr. Eisenbeiss has a Ph.D. in Counseling and Psychology (University of Wyoming), an M.A. Ed. Counseling and a B.A. in Business Education with both degrees earned at Idaho State University. In addition he has numerous continuing education courses involving child abuse. He is also affiliated as a consulting psychologist with St. Alphonsus and St. Luke's Regional Medical Centers and Intermountain Psychiatric Hospital.

Dr. Eisenbeiss has been married for 50 years. He has six children and nine grandchildren and enjoys involvement with his grandchildren in all their school and athletic events.