

Review Board Member

Dr. Christine Isaacs

Dr. Christine Isaacs has served on the Review Board since December, 2004, and has had a clinical practice in Boise since 1987 when she moved here from Montana.

The focus of her practice has been working with children, families and adults. She has served on a number of boards and committees including the CARES Advisory Committee at St. Luke's Regional Medical Center, the Idaho Supreme Court Committee for Children and Families in the Court and the AIDS Curriculum for the Boise Public Schools.

Chris began her professional career as an Assistant Professor in 1981 at the University of Montana. During her six years at Montana, she taught classes in the areas of child development, family relationship and human sexuality, and also designed and directed the Early Childhood Center. Chris also served on several boards and committees dedicated to women's and children's health and teaching sex education in the homes and schools.

Chris received her degrees from the University of Kansas which includes a Ph.D. and MA in Developmental and Child Psychology and a BA in Psychology.

Married to John Beecham, a wildlife biologist, Chris has enjoyed a full life as an adventurer with John, as well as being a stepmother and grandmother.