

Review Board Member

Judith Kroos

Judith Kroos has served on the Review Board since December, 2004, and is currently serving as Co-Chairperson. She retired from her position as Assistant Principal of Academic Affairs and Counseling at Bishop Kelly High school in 1998 where she had served for 19 years. During her years she was also the coordinator for administrative interns working through the College of Idaho.

Judith graduated from the University of Nebraska majoring in English Literature and Ancient History. She also completed an MA in Secondary Curriculum, Pupil Personnel Services and Secondary Administration.

Judith's husband, Bob, was a fighter pilot in the United States Air Force, which resulted in their living in seven states and four years in England. They are members of St. John's Cathedral in Boise where Judith serves as a docent for the Cathedral.