

Review Board Ex-Officio Member

Mark Raper

Mark Raper has served on the Review Board in an Ex-Officio capacity since 2004 providing canonical advice. Mark currently serves as the Director of Canonical Affairs for the Diocese of Boise; a position he has held since 2004.

Mark previously held a position as Case Manager in the Canonical Affairs department since 1999 prior to his promotion as Director. He has also worked in radio broadcasting from 1987-1993 and did freelance reporting for National Public Radio, Reuters, the BBC, National Native News and Northwest Public Radio. Mark won three State level awards for investigative reporting

Mark received his JCL/MCL in Canon Law from St. Paul University and the University of Ottawa in 2004. He also has a Bachelor's Degree in Communication from Boise State University earned in 1992.

Mark is a native of Idaho and has two children.