

Review Board Member

Sally Morrisroe

Sally Morrisroe has served on the Review Board since its inception in 2002. She is a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor, currently working full time as an admissions coordinator at Intermountain Hospital of Boise, a private psychiatric inpatient treatment facility.

Sally also has a private counseling business, Advocacy and specializes in trauma recovery, relationship and communications issues. She received specialized training in her field while working as both an offenders and victims counselor for the Terry Reilly Health Services SANE Solutions program, and has taught many workshops on sexual abuse prevention.

Sally is a graduate of St. Teresa's Academy, Boise Junior College, Seattle University and received her M.A. from the College of Idaho, followed by extensive post graduate education focused on mental health.

She and her husband, Toni, will celebrate 44 years of marriage in November, 2011, and are members of Sacred Heart Parish since 1971. They have five adult children and ten grandchildren.